Theresa Shank Grentz joined the WGAP Board of Directors in 2019. She is serving as President of WGAP for 2025. Theresa is a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and served as the US Olympic Head Coach in 1992. She was announced as a member of the Class of 2022, of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Over thirty-five years, she worked as the head women's basketball coach for Lafayette College, the University of Illinois, Rutgers University, and St. Joseph's University. She got her start playing for the Immaculata Mighty Macs and led the team to three AIAW National Championships between 1972 and 1974. These events were made into a movie, The Mighty Macs, which was released in 2011. Throughout her coaching career, she has shown a knack for motivational speaking and has given over one thousand speeches to various groups—from kindergarten classes to Fortune 500 companies. Grentz spent many fond years married to her college sweetheart, Karl. Theresa enjoys her love for the game of golf at Hershey's Mill Golf Club.
