Elizabeth “Liz” Kenney Haines joined the WGAP Board of Directors in 2016 and serves on the Team Match and Tournament Committees. Liz grew up and learned how to play golf at Whitemarsh Valley Country Club where she played with her Dad and three siblings. Liz is a member of Merion Golf Club and has represented Merion on many golf teams throughout the years. She has also had a long career representing the Women's Golf Association of Philadelphia. Liz attended the University of Minnesota and worked in finance as well as the Montgomery County Intermediate Unit. She married her husband, George in 1977, and together enjoyed golf, and raising their son. She enjoys her four grandchildren, and their golf, ice hockey, basketball, baseball, and soccer.
